Other winners of this event were Fides, Fitzjames, Madstone, Prince George, Correction, Hastings, Octagon, (twice), Banastar (twice), Voter, Old England, Hurst Park and Roseben. It was a day of triumph for the Rainey brothers, Roy and Paul. Following the success of the former's $16,000 Sir Wilfred in the first race came the victory of the $45,000 De Mund in the Juvenile. The crush in the paddock to see De Mund before he was sad-dled was so great that the police had to make a space around the entrance to the stall. De Mund came up to the expectations of his owner, who was elated when he saw the youngster breeze home so easily. The Juvenile Stakes was run at Jerome Park for the first break, but in less than half a dozen jumps De Mund left the others as if they were stand-ing still, whereupon Jack Martin, who had the legup, turned to his rivals and oried out, with a laugh: "Good-by, boys! I'll see you at the scales!" George S. Davis, the colt who ran second, carried the colors of his owner, the shortstop of the Chicago American League team, for from he is named. Sir Wilfred had all he could do to beat the same little Pater in the first race, but he landed some heavy wagers for John W. Gates, John A. Drake, the Raineys, Mattle Corbett, E. R. Thomas, Jesse Lewisohn and others in the clubhouse who were ready to accept any price about the Ossary colt. Sir Wilfred has not been raced since the winter meeting at Les Angeles and was just a trifle short. he was game under punishment and showed that his owner made no error when he got him at the recent sale of Boots Durnell's horses. With a better ride Battleaxe, who received seventeen pounds from Pater and eleven from Sir Wilfred, might have won the race.

After losing a number of big bets in previous races on Toddles, E. R. Thomas let the filly run unbacked in the second race, with ney colors, ran a vastly improved race in this event. The defeat of Golden Shore, the favorite, was not wholly unexpected, as some of the big books laid against the Golden Garter filly right up to the last moment.

There was ninety-five books, including thirty non-members in the front line, sixty in the back line and 100 in the field, and 90 per cent. of them lost money on the day. Some tropped as much as $3,000 on the result of the wir races, while others averaged about $1,500. Sol Lichtenstein placed a heavy commission all over the ring on De Mund, who was the most heavily backed winner of the day. Unless this colt goes wrong it will take a phebenenal two-year-old to beat him. He is a powerful looking fellow with whirlwind speed and appears to have the National Stallion Stakes at his mercy. Rodrock, sho had the mount, was slow in getting agnel away from the post and when the Sir Dixon colt refused at the jump on the first turn the money went up in smoke. Good and Plenty, who was rather high in flesh, jumped with much of his old skill, and his victory was one of the most popular events of the Mernoon. Hoppe never gave Slosson a chance. The young expert led off with 118 from the bank, and increased his lead as he went on. He had several other good runs. but it took him 21 innings to finish the contest for an average of a fraction above 17. Slosson played poorly, and had only 34 for his high run. The student averaged 8 and a fraction.

The largest matinee crowd of the week watched the game, filling nearly every seat, as was the case last night. Former matinees have not been such magnets, but after Hoppe's sensational run of 307 last night the crowd took advantage of the last opportunity for some time to see the "boy wonder." Willie was loudly applanded when he made his first appearance in the hall. Score by innings:

Reimont Park was the magnet for a crowd Petront Park was the magnet for a crowd persons. The gathering was larger than that on Metropolitan Handienp day and the greatest enthusiasts was manifested over the running of each event. It was a perfect day for racing and the track was in pretty fair condition after the rainfall on Friday night. Much interest was centered in the empearance of Paul J. Rainey's $45,000 cold. appearance of Paul J. Rainey's $45,000 colt De Mund in the Juvenile Stakes for two-yearolds, five furlongs, straightaway. The handcourse, a hot favorite, but he receded from Newcastle Stable's Saracinesca, a colt by Orquin-Lux, was backed from 3 to 1 down to 11 to 5. But De Mund was easily the master of the situation from the moment the barrier four and a half luriongs, after leading for a part of the distance, stopped to nothing. Then the Ormondale stable's Oran, a speedy colt by Ossary—Sloe, who had been heavily backed at 16 to 5, came away in brilliant style and won in a gallop by five lengths in 0:53 2-5. E. R. Thomas's Toddles, a neglected 20 to 1 shot, nalled the place from H. P. Whitney's Jersey Lady, 30 to 1, by a half s length.

H. P. Whitney's derive, half a length.

A. L. Aste's Champlain, 4 to 1, made all the running in the last race for platers at a mile and won rather easily by a length in 1:40 4-5. Bragg, 7 to 1, beat King's Gem, 5 to 2, second choice, a head for the place. Prince Silverwings, 2 to 1 favorite, came home absolutely last. Three favorites won and Miller and Martin each rode two firsts. The summaries:

YOU MAY HAVE A FINE looking and expensive stable, but if you have not proper drainage you make a great mistake. A well known fact among scientific men is that brick, cement and asphalt are porous; therefore unsatinary. Logan's Stail is the only perfect one in the world, and is economy; guaranteed to pay for itself in one year, can be adapted to new or old stables. When purchasing see that the name M. Logan is on each drain pan, for your own protection. No. 1642 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL. West Hudsons Win and Take Lead in Metropolitan League Championship. Winning their match with the Paterson Rangers in the championship series of the Metropol-itan Association Football League at Cosmopolitan Park, Newark, N. J., yesterday after-noon, the West Hudsons of that city obtained the lead for first place with a total of 25 points to their credit, as against 23 for the Holly-wood Inn team of Yonkers. The score of the match was 4 goals to 1 against the silk weavers, who, while they played a fast forward game and allowed only one goal during the first half and tied the score early in the second were subsequently outplayed by the winners in good style, much to the delight of the 2,000 persons on hand to witness the game. Gorman was the first to tally for the home team by taking quick advantage of a fumble by the Patersons in front of their own goal. There was no further scoring until fifteen minutes after the restart, when the Patersons were allowed a free kick within the penalty area, owing to handling of the ball, and Hogan got through with the tying tally.

It took just a minute for the West Hudsons to hustle the ball back to their opponents' goal, where Oldfield shot in for a point from the left. Fierce play followed, with both goals in turn in danger, but the ball for the most part was largely in the Patersons' territory. No scoring was accomplished for the next twenty-five minutes, but then McMillan, from a pass from Oldfield, finely beat Garside, the clever Paterson goalkeeper. Within half a minute of time McGee made good for West Hudson from a scrimmage in front of goal.

The final game of the league series will be between the Caledonians of this city and the Hollywood Inn eleven, on the forther's grounds, and should the former win or draw the championship will go to the West Hudsons.

Another league game was contested between the champion Caledonians of this city and the Bronx Rangers at the former's grounds, Lenox avenue and 145th street, yesterday afternoon. It resulted in favor of the Caledonians by the score of 2 goals to 0. McDonald and Bruce, the left wing for the champions, tailled both the points for the winning side.
